Company Overview

Name:	Komprise India Private Limited
Website:	www.komprise.com
Company Type:	Information Technology
Description:	Komprise is transforming the $48B+ data management industry by enabling businesses with a smarter way to manage their data. With data more than doubling each year and IT budgets remaining flat, storage concerns keep growing. Visibility of the data is the first step in transforming data management and Komprise has the only solution that provides visibility, transparent move technology™, and access to their data regardless of storage infrastructure. Data is the new oil, but only if companies can unlock its potential, and that's where Komprise comes in. The three founders of Komprise have worked together for over 20 years after meeting at the University of Illinois. Kumar Goswami, Krishna Subramanian and Mike Peercy have taken two companies to a positive exit and started this company with a mission; a mission to change how the world manages data.
