

Job Notification Form, IIT Delhi

Company Overview

Name: Fareportal Pvt Ltd

Website: www.fareportal.com

Company Type: Information Technology

Description: Fareportal was founded in early 2002 by our CEO, Sam S. Jain as a way to sustain booking engines powered by the Global Distribution System (GDS) for use by retail and wholesale travel industry.

- A few years after its inception, Sam noticed a shift towards ecommerce across all industries. In order to remain on the cutting edge, he started channeling profits from Fareportal into the development of a proprietary ecommerce platform.

- By 2006, CheapOair was launched as the company's first consumer online portal. Staying close to its traditional travel agency model, the concept of having customer care agents available 24/7 carried over to CheapOair.

- Today, CheapOair's 3,000+ customer care agents receive nearly 30,000 calls, manage over 450 emails and handle over 800 instant messages (e.g., chats) per day.
